

RELEASE DATE: June 2, 2011

Library Branches Hosting Programs For Kids

Young Adult Summer Reading Club

CONTACT Crystal Barbour | 409-842-5223

Theodore Johns Branch Library will kick off its Young Adult Summer Reading Club on Monday, June 6, at 5 p.m. The group will meet every Monday at 5 p.m. through the summer.

Participants will be selecting books donated by Galaxy Press as a group to read and discuss throughout the summer. The group is open to kids ages 12-18. Registration begins June 3. The Johns branch is located at 4255 Fannett Road.

Magic and Illusion Show at North End Community Center

CONTACT Kunwoo Choi | 409- 892-4988

The Willard Library will host a special program to celebrate the beginning of summer on Wednesday, June 8, during its regular 10:30 a.m. story hour.

James Banner, a professional magician/illusionist with more than 30 years of experience will present a one-hour, family-oriented Las Vegas style show at the North End Community Center, located next to the Willard Library. Mr. Banner and his assistants will make objects magically appear, disappear, change color and places, and even float in mid-air.

The North End Community Center is located at 3580 E. Lucas Drive.

###